

HISTORIC LANDMARK COMMISSION
JUNE 22, 2015
DEMOLITION AND RELOCATION PERMITS
HDP-2015-0359
1107 WOODLAND AVENUE

PROPOSAL

---

Relocate a ca. 1948 house.

ARCHITECTURE

---

One-story, wing-and-gable plan frame house with a partial-width inset porch on ornamental metal supports; single and paired 6:6 fenestration with a picture window in the wing section of the house under the front porch; the picture window has a large fixed-class section with a single multi-light casement on each side.

RESEARCH

---

The house was built in 1948 by John S. Davis, a car salesman, who, with his wife, Florence, lived here until around 1953. The house was then purchased and occupied by Golda E. Caldwell, a teacher at the State School for the Deaf, who later became the school's principal. She lived here until her death in 1996.

STAFF COMMENTS

---

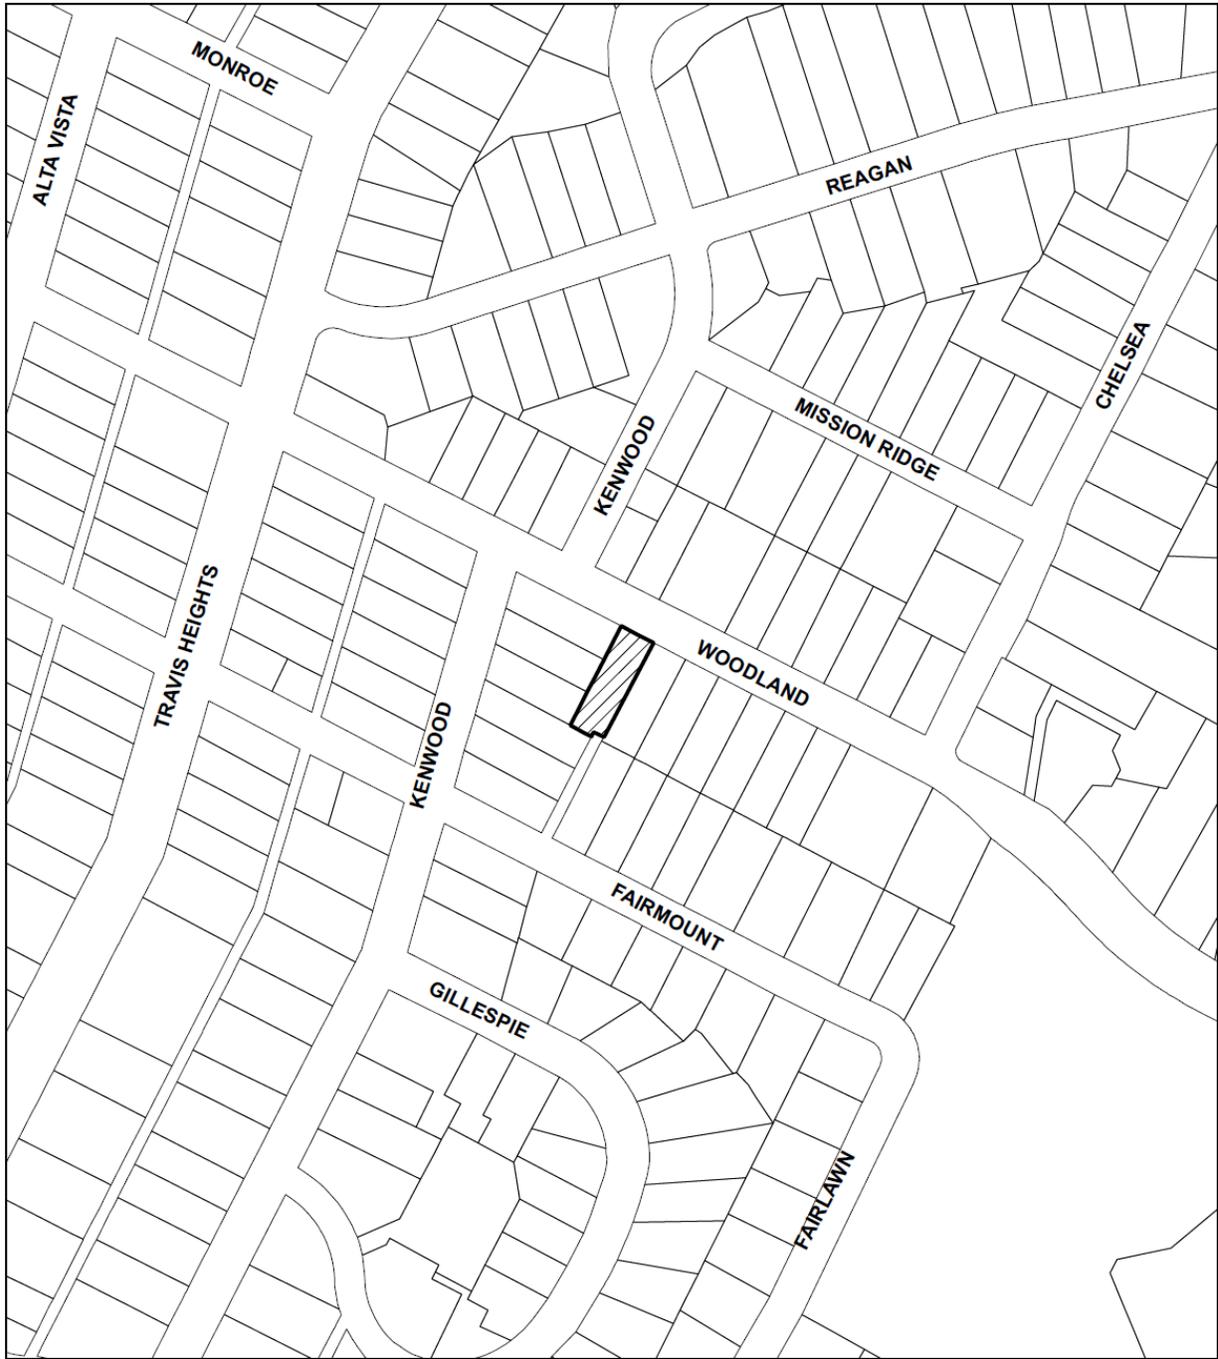

The house does not appear in any City survey.

STAFF RECOMMENDATION

---

Encourage adaptive re-use of this house, which is characteristic of the neighborhood, but otherwise release the relocation permit upon completion of a City of Austin Documentation Package, consisting of photographs of all elevations, a dimensioned sketch plan, and a narrative history, for archiving at the Austin History Center.
